

Tribute to Academy Founding Trustees

Darell D. Zimbelman, Ph.D., P.E., D.WRE

Darryl W. Davis, P.E., D.WRE

Albert J. Clemmens, Ph.D., P.E., D.WRE

Charleston, SC - On September 15, 2007, the AAWRE Board of Trustees recognized three of its founding trustees, for their service and leadership on the board. After three-years of dedicated and valuable service, Darell D. Zimbelman, Ph.D., P.E., D.WRE, F.ASCE, Albert J. Clemmens, Ph.D., P.E., D.WRE, and Darryl W. Davis, P.E., D.WRE completed their terms on the AAWRE board.

As founding trustees that started the Academy, all three made invaluable and vital contributions in devising and implementing policies and guidelines in the AAWRE program and provided guidance on the direction of the Academy. All three received special plaques from AAWRE founding-president, Jeffrey B. Bradley, Ph.D., P.E., D.WRE, F.ASCE.

Dr. Zimbelman served as first AAWRE past-president and chair of the nominations and election committee on the board. He will continue to stay active in technical committees involved with the design and operations of water resource systems, including irrigation, hydroelectric power generation, water supply, and flood control.

Dr. Clemmens served as chair of the admissions committee and played a vital role in developing guidelines in the candidates' admissions process. He will continue to work as research leader at the USDA-ARS in Maricopa, AZ.

Mr. Davis served as chair of the eminence committee and will continue to serve part-time as senior advisor for the USACE Institute for Water Resources. He recently was the recipient of the 2007 ASCE Parcel-Sverdrup award.

AAWRE says 'thank you' to these distinguished leaders for their service and leadership. These outgoing trustees are replaced by Daniel W. Boyd, P.E., D.WRE, Jonathan E. Jones, P.E., D.WRE, and Erika P. Moonin, P.E., D.WRE.
